

Director's Office

Emergency Management Division

The Washington Military Department, Emergency Management Division (EMD), Director's Office provides leadership, policy direction, and oversight for all the division's programs and activities. The office coordinates and manages emergency management legislative issues, the division's budget, and emergency-related public information. The office also serves as liaison with emergency management partners.

Fact sheet:

- Public Information Officers
- Regional Coordinator for Southwest Washington